W. & T. SMITH, PROPRIETORS.

We claim great advantages for the soil of Geneva and vicinity, in the production of healthy, long-lived trees. This is a matter of great importance to every planter. Not a year passes that we do not receive additional testimony of the fact that trees grown upon our heavy, strong, rich, well-drained soil are healthier, longer lived, less liable to injury from extreme cold, and more productive than when taken from a light soil. Another very important fact is that being furnished with a more abundant supply of healthy, well-ripened and strong roots, they bear transplanting to a different soil and climate much better.

All persons authorized to act as Agents for us, are provided with a written certificate to that effect, and we request that they be required to show their certificates. Stock is not unfrequently sold by persons without authority, and not furnished from the places they pretend to represent, by which means many poor trees and plants are distributed, causing great dissatisfaction and disappointment. BUY GOOD STOCK OF RELIABLE MEN, and this may be avoided.

THE EVANS-GRAHAM MELEE.

Evans' Statement of the Difficulty
Over the Roaring Bulletins.

David Evans, President of the Loyal League of Provo, and one of the participants in the Graham-Evans melee at Provo on the day the Tucker-Edmunds bill became law, was in the court room yesterday and was asked by a HERALD reporter for his version of the trouble. He was at first reluctant to say anything about it, but finally gave a statement, saying that given in the Enquirer was totally untrue, and though the matter was thoroughly understood in Provo, a false impression might have been created hereabouts by THE HERALD having copied the article.

Mr. Evans said he had received a dispatch from Salt Lake stating that the President had signed the bill. A little while after this had been circulated about town, Mr. Graham had received one stating that the bill had not been signed, and the Enquirer had a bulletin posted out to that effect. To make sure, Mr. Evans had wired to O. J. Hollister and the Tribune, who as yet ignorant that Mr. Kirby had got sally (if added, wired back that the bill was assuredly signed. Mr. Evans says he, you g. Buchanan and Mr. Graham were walking up the street, discussing this last telegram good naturedly, when Buchanan took it and pasted it on the Enquirer bulletin board, below the one issued by Mr. Graham. That gentleman had asked him to desist, and Mr. Evans had taken it off and pasted it on the brick wall of Snow Bros. building, some distance away from the bulletin board. Mr. Graham had then taken it off there and torn it into shreds, not as yet in anger, but saying that it was not authentic. Mr. Evans had drawn another from his pocket at that, and posted it in the same place, saying if it was incorrect, Mr. Graham could have the laugh on him next day. Mr. Graham had here waxed angry, and stated that he had permission to post all over that brick wall, and he would have no such bulletin upon it. He had started forward to tear it off, when Mr. Evans interrupted him. He then came forward with his fists clenched, commanding Evans to get off that sidewalk, at which this gentleman struck him a heavy blow behind the ear. Mr. Graham he says was caught in falling, by Deputy Cuddie, and there the whole affair ended, the placard remaining up the remainder of the day. Subsequent events showed the Enquirer bulletin to have been correct, but nothing further was done in the case, except to make the arrest of both parties, and to notify them to appear before Justice Brown, who, however, dismissed the case without looking into it.

PROVO POINTS.

FINE WEATHER and good roads made it very pleasant for the large number of people that attended the stake conference last Saturday and Sunday.

A large number of people gathered at the Court House, and went from there to the D. & R. G. depot on Monday afternoon to get a final view of their friends, President David John, Robert C. Kirkwood, Edward Peay, and some others who were destined to sojourn in the Utah Penitentiary for the period of six months. The prisoners appeared more cheerful than did the officers who had them in charge.

THE HOME COMPANY'S performance of Under the Gaslight was not so well attended as it should have been on Saturday night. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the stake choir, and being on a cold evening, the house would have been crowded if people could possibly have spared the necessary amount to obtain admission. We have seen the play several times, and never saw it more enthusiastically received. The characters represented by W. C. A. Smoot, Jr., W. H. Brown, J. B. Walton, John Pyne, John H. McKean, J. C. Graham and others, with the ladies, Miss Grier, Miss Holdaway, Miss Brown and Miss Sadie Graham, all appeared in the parts best suited to them, though it was very difficult for Miss Grace Smith to enact a role so foreign to her nature as that of Old Judas.

SOME OLD-TIME Republicans who are holding office under a Democratic administration in this Territory, are very sensitive just now, and in their anxiety to manufacture some political capital out of the situation, they are catching at straws. The fact that President Cleveland neglected to sign the Edmunds-Tucker bill is one of the straws, and the pardoning of Jos. H. Evans is another straw in the eager grasp of these mawkish officials which they intend to use in the next Presidential campaign. We have seen the desperate attempts that have been made by these Republican officials to almost force the President to interfere to prevent their overdoing the matter on the principle of segregation, for instance, and failing to force the President into doing anything that might be construed by the most sophisticated as in any way favorable to the Mormons, they now denounce him for pardoning old man Evans, and seem to think it an unpardonable offense, though the pardoning of a thief or a murderer would excite no comment. Some of these officials in this vicinity are so sensitive that they would regard it as an insult if credited with sustaining the President in his neglecting to sign the Tucker bill. It is unfortunate for the Republican party that no more political capital can be manufactured out of the Mormon question.

B. Provo, March 8, 1887.

In Business at Price.

Mr. S. S. Jones, the enterprising Provo merchant, has bought out the entire stock and good will of the Price Mercantile Company, and has leased the building for a number of years. To the stock recently carried by the company, he has added a large quantity of his own, and the two make a large and varied supply—second to none in Emery County. He will open a large trade in Utah products, and has an excellent location, from which he will be able to handle the major portion of the products raised by the farmers of that region. Price is bound to boom into prominence as a distributing point, and Mr. Jones will materially assist in the boom.

Post Him!

The publishers of the Des Moines Leader, Des Moines, Iowa, have sent out the following:

March 1, 1887.

To Whom it may Concern:

James W. DeVeney, a printer in business in Cleveland, Ohio, for years, afterwards foreman in the job rooms for the Omaha Herald, and Rice Printing Company, of Omaha, Nebraska, has recently been in the employ of this company, and we charge him with embezzlement and larceny.

He is 32 years old, about five feet ten inches tall, weight 240 pounds, well dressed, and a heavy drooping mustache of light color. Report his whereabouts by letter to this company.

He has gone west, accompanied by A. H. Ziegler, a thoroughly reliable business man of this city, who is probably not aware of DeVeney's rascality. They stated that their purpose was to buy a newspaper plant somewhere in Utah or Idaho, and probably go on to Oregon. Should DeVeney present cards, letters of credit or introduction, signed by us, they are without authority and forged, as he has no connection with the Leader, and no favors should be allowed him on our account.

The Philosophy of Life.

The Philosophy of Francis Bacon is the philosophy of life. "Despite no new accident in the body," said he, "but ask opinion of it; in sickness principally respect health, and in health action." There are many so-called slight affections which men think it brave not to notice. It is not bravery; it is folly. As Bacon says, "despite no new accident in the body." BRAND-BARN'S PILLS will remove effectually and at once a thousand and one of the little ills of life that often, if neglected, take years to cure. Be sure to have with you always a box of BRAND-BARN'S PILLS.

Useful and Hurtful Medicines.

There is a certain class of remedies for constipation absolutely useless. These are boluses and potions made in great part of podophyllin, aloes, rhubarb, gamboge, and other worthless ingredients. The damage they do to the stomachs of those who use them is incalculable. They evacuate the bowels, it is true, but always do so violently and profusely, and besides, gripe the bowels. Their effect is to weaken both them and the stomach. Better far to use the agreeable and salutary aperient, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the laxative effect of which is never preceded by pain, or accompanied by a convulsive, violent action of the bowels. On the contrary, it invigorates those organs, the stomach and the entire system. As a means of curing and preventing malarial fevers, no medicine can compare with it, and it remedies nervous debility, rheumatism, kidney and bladder inactivity, and other inorganic ailments.
